

The food is ready and the Mass ended and here comes the people to visit Santa.

they check in and Mrs Claus greets the families

After breakfast there was discussion by some of those anticipating

Then Santa arrived and, with the help of Mrs Claus listened carefully to each child. There were children of all ages- two little ones gave us the typical reaction -scared. Some come with lists, some came with love and hugs, and moms got into the act. Everyone, including families, was taking pictures, and it was a wonderful day for all

Thank you Don and Gerda Hansen, and thank you Ed Weil for the pictures
